Comments from the editor:

This edition of the Chieftain is a record of the people and happenings at Peebles High School in 1972-73. It will always keep the memories we have had in the past years as we turn the pages today.

We thank the merchants for their support from their advertisements which made this book possible. A very special thanks to the members of the Chieftain Staff for their hard work.

The Chieftain Queen And King

The Chieftain Queen and King for 1973 are Karen Dick and Jeff Swayne. They were chosen by an election held on April 25. Anyone who had purchased a yearbook was eligible to vote for their choice of three girls and three boys nominated by the members of the Senior class.

Karen has been a student at Peebles all 12 years and has been very active during her high school years. She has been a cheerleader for all four years of her high school, a member of Language Club, on the Chieftain Staff, and has won many awards and honors during her Senior Year.

Jeff went to Locust Grove for his first seven years of school before coming to Peebles. He was active in Vo-Ag and FFA during his first three years of high school. He was also on the Track team during his first three years.

The Class Prophecy

It is now the year 1993, Peebles '73' graduating class has reassembled at the Shawnee Lodge for a class reunion. The Public Address system is temporarily out of order but it doesn't matter since Doug Austin is our guest speaker, with Tonya Smalley here on standby. The first to arrive is Barbara Burke, who has just flown in from her job as stewardess, with Steve Garrison piloting the plane. It's a wonder they even landed. Coming with them are Nadine Myers, Sandy Henry, Kathy Campton, Linda Morgan, and Faye McCleese, who are now sharing an apartment on the West Coast, and are wrapped up in their new jet-age careers. Next comes Anna Toller, top bunny of Everett Smith's Playboy Club. Robin Swayne, unable to attend, is now known as Sister Roberta, in the convent run by Dale Tolle, alias Brother Morgan. The people arriving are keeping Shawnee's doormen, Roger Baker, Tom Ward, Randy Hohn, and Terry Wilson busy seating them. The Private Limousine of the Crums has now arrived. Stepping out first is Judy, one of our former cheerleaders, is now Sinkhole's biggest Pig Feeder. Next comes Pam with her husband Jerry. They are two of Sinking Spring's leading citizens. Here comes Tony Couser, the great hunter of '73' who has now killed everything that can climb a tree. With him is George Fugate who has just been appointed as Game Warden of the Sinking Spring area. Susan Roettele pushes the doorman away as she enters. She's a supporter of women's lib and now she pays alimony to her 3 former husbands. Here comes Peebles' leading merchants. Chris Reed now owns the Peebles 5&10 located in the Peebles Plaza, Susi Schwartz is sole owner of Schwartz' Dept. Store, Paul Seaman has made Bushhogging a major business, Rick Frost has become a millionaire from his chain of Dairy Queens, and Paul Countryman is Little Food Giants' head meat cutter. Greg Seaman has now followed in his father's footsteps and works in the Peebles Post Office. Next comes Adams County's leading dentist, Roger Tong, with his hygienist, Deana Gaffin. By the way, folks, Lance Copas, and his Cincinnati Orchestra will play for us later on. Then we will see filmclips of Kevin Inlow's latest monster movie starring Jeff Reynolds and Pam Reed. A black cloud of smoke and a ball of fire rolls up to the gate as Danny Reed hops out of his new super-charged, speed-unlimited VW. Out pours Deb Elble now weighing 291 pounds. She has finally succeeded in gaining some weight. Riding with them are Mike Knauff, David Cruea, Larry Gardner, and Gary Wilson, Dan's expert pitstop mechanics. Also Dennis Newman the inventor of rubber fenders for Dan's VW.

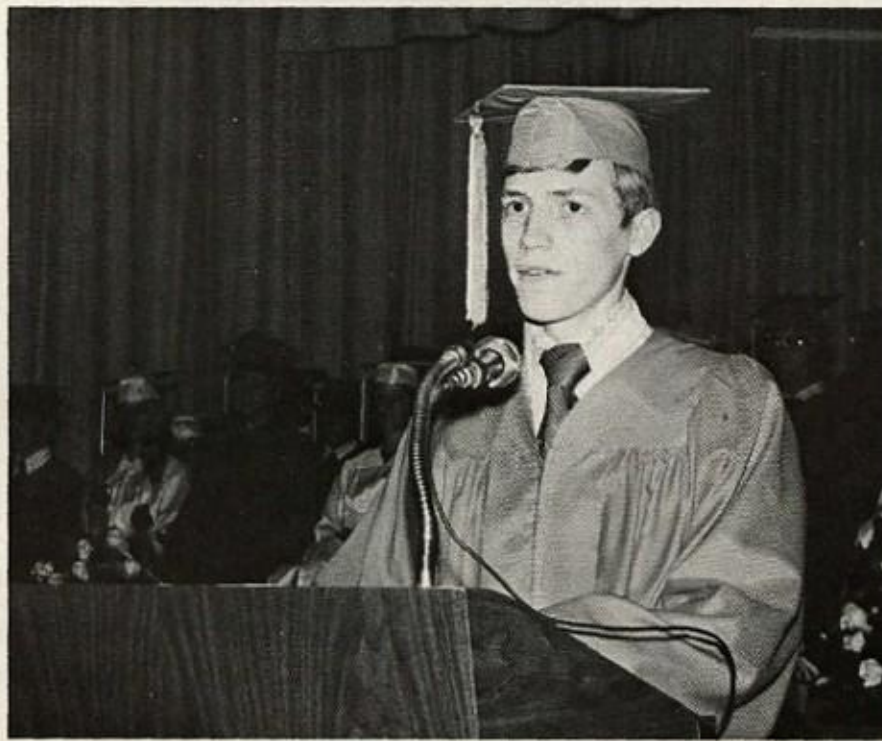

After our dinner tonight we will get to see a peek-a-boo preview of Barb Miller's and Nina Shoemaker's new talk show "Have Mouth Will Travel." Their mouths haven't been closed by anyone yet. By the way, we have received word that Jeff Swayne and Karen Dick will be unable to attend tonight. They are finally taking their honeymoon aboard the U.S.S. Poseidon. Joe Butler is still tearing up beer joints and bothering Marilyn Cluxton, the bar maid at the 3J's, Jamie Johnson's Joint. Joy Davis and Randy Hilterbran are southern Ohio's leading lumbermen. She cuts while he hauls. Now arriving is Pam Swayne the first woman shortstop, who has now signed with the Cincinnati Reds. Here is Suzie Warfe who plays center for Peebles University with Chuck Johnson as her substitute. Jerry Puckett, Canada's famous tour guide and Jack Wilcher, who is now owner of Rocky Fork Lake are now entering the lodge. The English IV class dunces are now arriving. Here's David Greene and Wanda Gaffin, who are still reading the zip-shipped Richard III for Mr. Knapp.

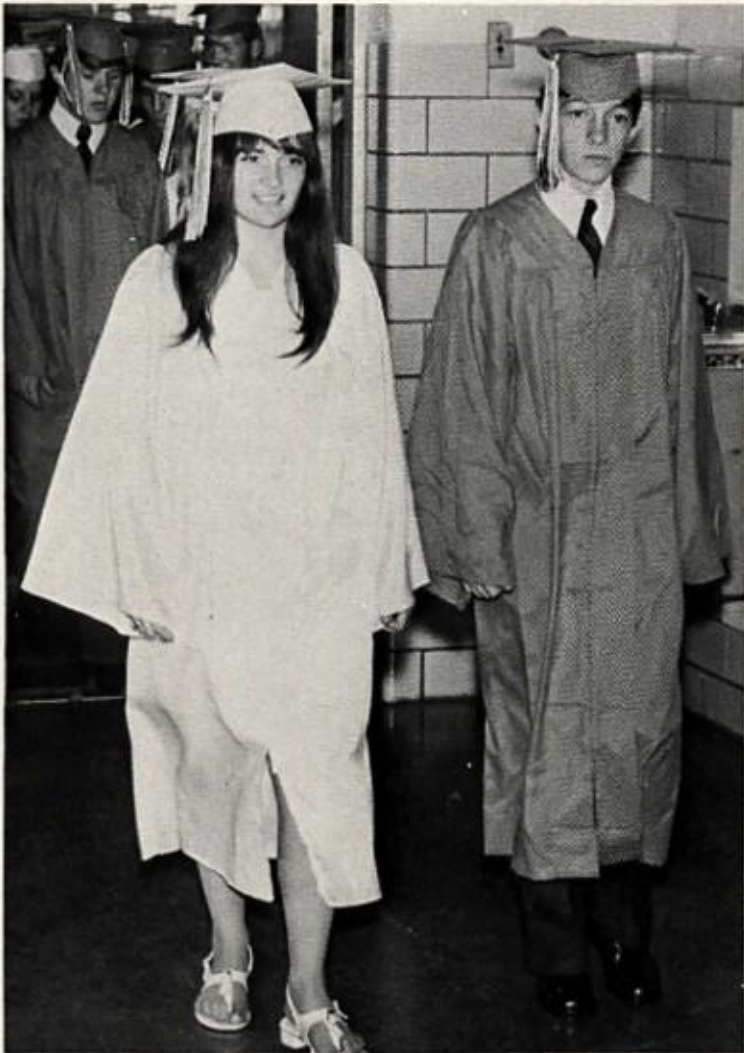

Lavona Fitzwater is now entering. She is the owner of a respectable night club. Christi Knauff is a Go-Go dancer suspended from the ceiling in a birdcage. She dances to the music of Ron Jarvis and Dale Mendenhall band. The people are nibbling on the cookies supplied by Ralph Jamison, the head elf in his Keebler Cookie Factory. Arriving now are Peebles' leading housewives, Pat Cruea, Delcie Edmisten, Pat Johnson, Brenda Parker, Rachel Savage, Carolyn Seaman, and Susan Shoemaker. They have a grand total of 113 children among them. I guess Peebles High School teachers had some influence on our boys' patriotism because Dennis Plummer, James Loncaric, Dan McCann, David Osborne, Roger Robinson and David Schoonover, have all joined the armed forces and are now stationed in Alaska. They take so many weekend passes that after 20 years they still haven't completed their term of duty.

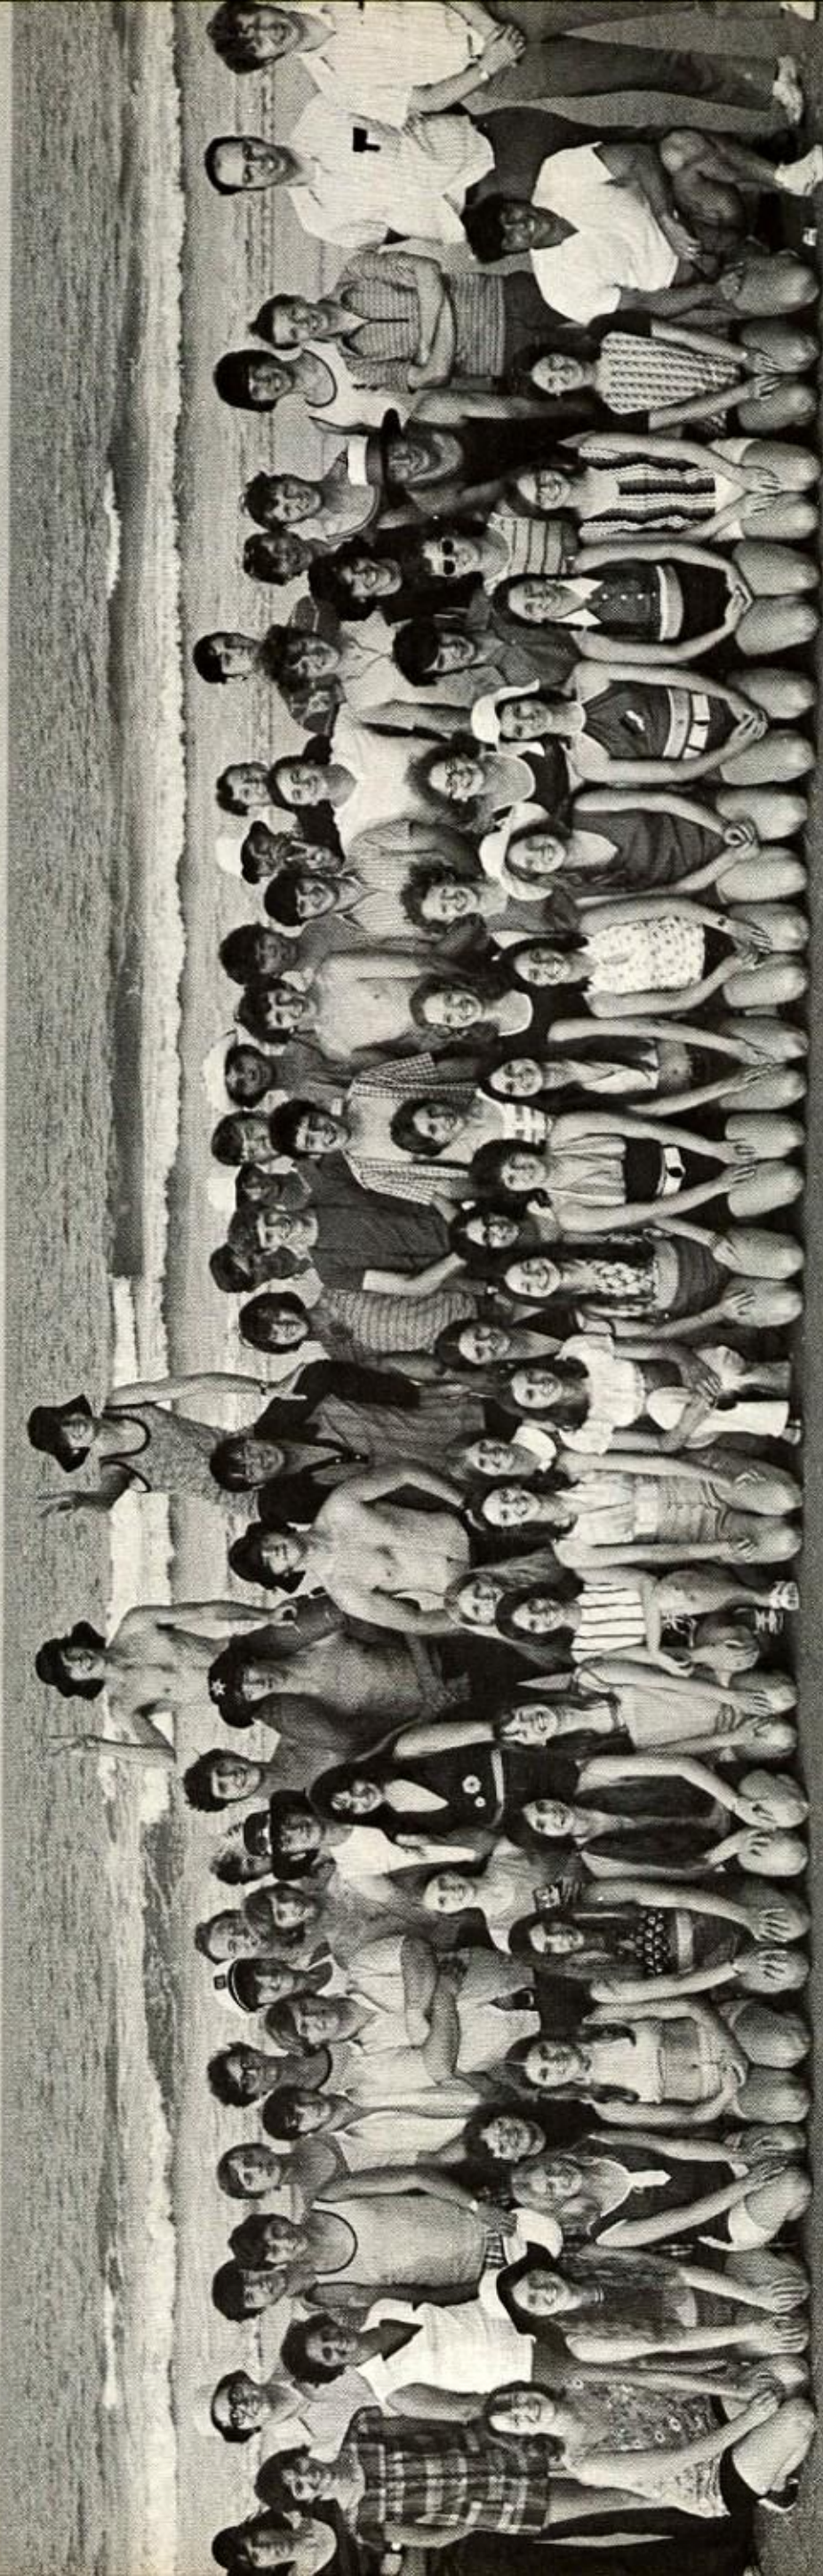

Pulling right up behind them are Damaris Smalley, Teresa Hoop and their Motorcycle Men: Billy Robinson, Randy Hohn, Sam Nevil, Mike Storer, and Terry Hoop. Larry Smith has just changed the Pool Room into a Pizza Parlor, and now goes under the name of John Dough. If he'll keep this name no one knows. We have just heard a flash bulletin on the radio, Melody McCleese singing in the Grand Ole Opry has just brought the roof down. Ten People Killed, 57 Injured. Donna Walcott and Ronnie Wallace have paintings that are now being featured in the local art gallery. Here comes Tangi Hoop weighing in at 350 pounds. She heads straight for the bathroom mirror where she gazes longingly at herself, wishing for those good old days.

Randy Haire, now coming through the door, owns Haire's Unlimited, his new wig shop, with Steve Ryan and Gail Tolle working as his main stylists. We are sorry to announce that Joe Beasley can not make it tonight, because he fell asleep during Graduation and has not woke up yet. Well, it seems as if that takes care of everything and as George Kauffing would remark "That's all Folks."

IN MEMORIAM

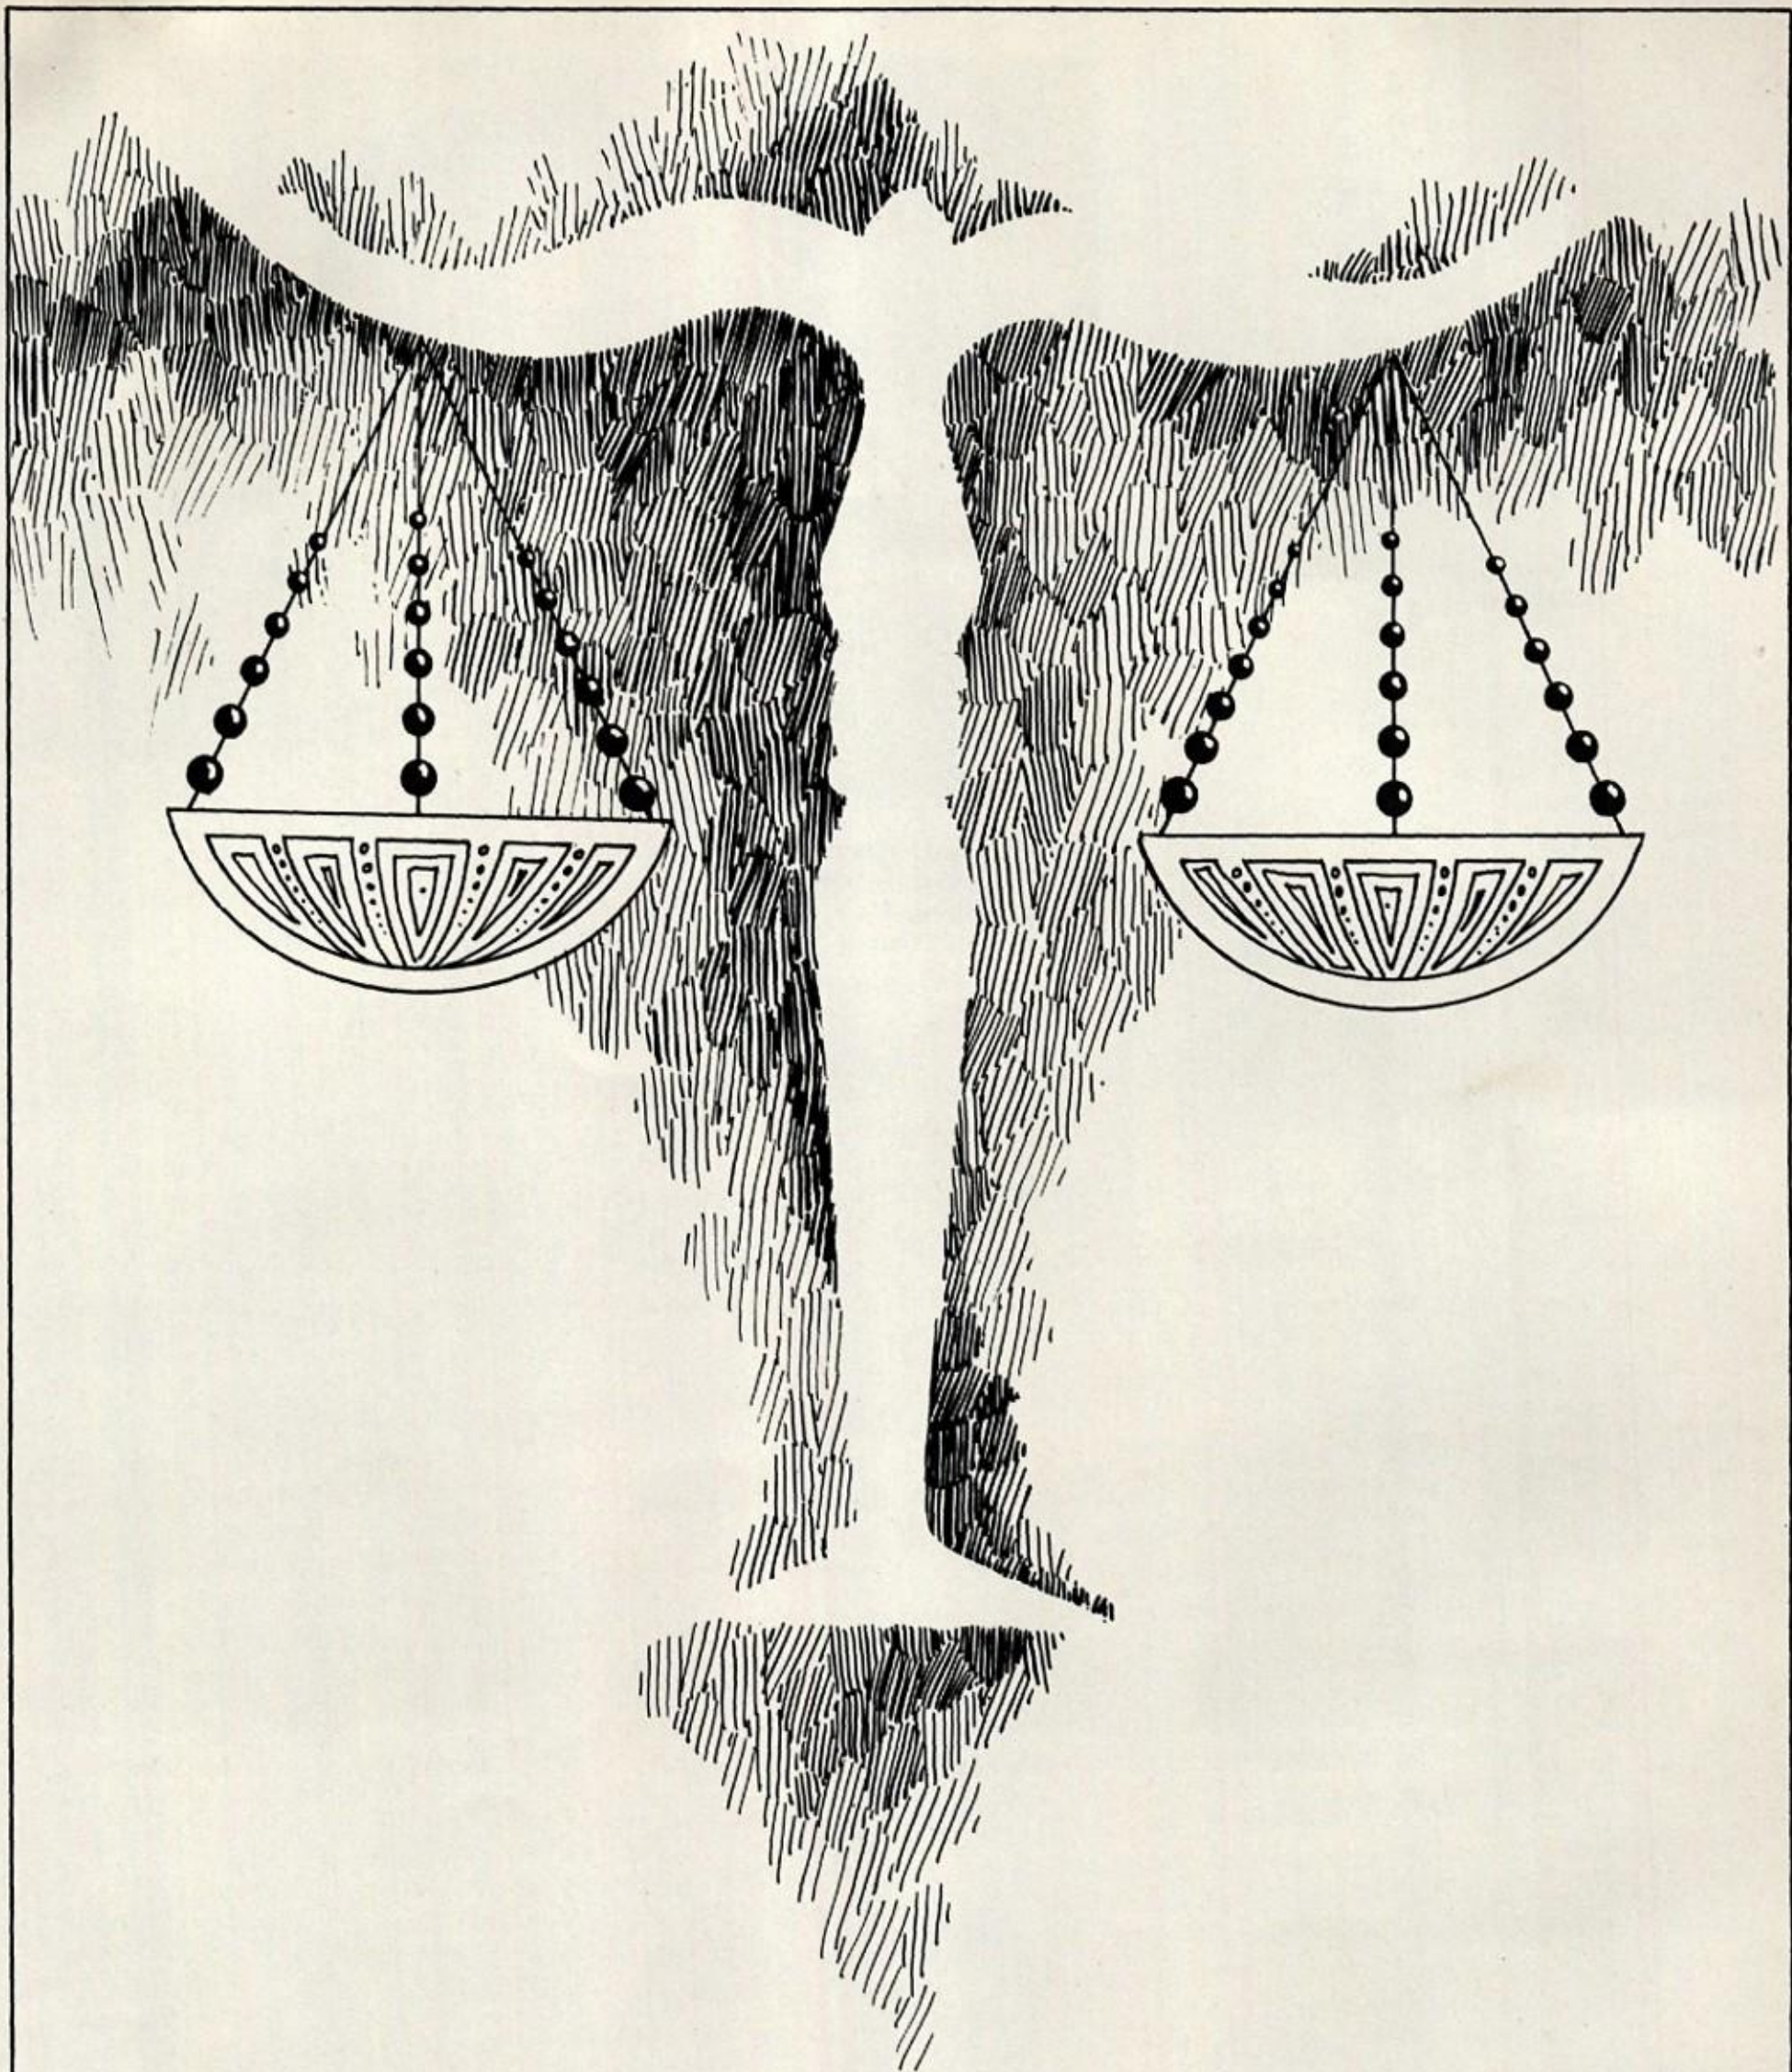

Timothy Shane Gordley

March 27, 1955 — March 11, 1971

You may give them your love but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow,
which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.
For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.

ATHLETICS

The Athletic Banquet

Chuck Johnson, a 6' Senior guard of PHS who averages 23 points a game, was named on the first team of All-Ohio Basketball Team. This is the first time a boy from Adams County has received this honor. Chuck also headed a list of seven other boys named to All-Southeastern District Team. He was voted Player of the Year in Southeastern Ohio, in class "A" ball. Also Chuck was named to the Southern Hills All-League Team, and Tri-County League Team.

Congratulations, Chuck, for a job well done!
